

Waltham Forest Bilingual Group

Are you part of a family that speaks several languages?

Are you raising your children to speak a language other than English?

Do you work with bilingual children?

Waltham Forest Bilingual Group is a small voluntary group set up by parents who wanted to get together to share experiences of raising children bilingually and support each other.

Francesca La Morgia

10 tips to raising multilingual children.

Saturday 2nd October 2010 3.45pm

Francesca is a specialist in multilingualism. She is an academic but has also set up a group to help multilingual families in Ireland where she is based. Francesca will share with us her tips and all talk a little about the group that she has set up (see <http://www.bilingualforumireland.com/about-us.html>)

The Limes Children's and Community Centre, Somers Road, Walthamstow (just off the market, corner of Palmerston Road). The venue is fully accessible.

All are welcome, and it is free.
